SIXTY-FIFTH YEAR — NO. 26 | UPLAND, CALIFORNIA | PRICE 10c Single Copy | THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 1959

Rule Death 'Accidental'

A car traveling Foothill Blvd. Friday afternoon snuffed out the life of an eager youngster as he ran across the highway at Fifth Ave.

Victim was Peter John Andreozzi, 12, of 10325 Base Line, Cucamonga, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony A. Andreozzi.

"Accidental death" was ruling of the coroner's eight-man jury Tuesday after an inquest into the traffic fatality, second for Upland this year.

Dept. Coroner P. H. Evans said testimony of nine witnesses "definitely established that the boy was not in the marked crosswalk at the time of impact and was running across the street from south to north."

Witnesses disagreed on one point. Some said there was a parked car there, others said there wasn't. Earlier reports to police indicated a car may have stopped to permit the boy to start across the street.

Among the witnesses was driver of the car which struck the boy — Mrs. Gertrude Gates Morse, 61, of 751 Linda Vista, Pasadena. She was traveling east on Foothill Blvd. when the accident occurred. Right fender and side of the car were damaged, according to Upland police reports.

No citation was issued the driver after investigation of the pedestrian injury. Point of impact was indicated as 22 ft. east of the crosswalk and 36 ft. north of the south curbline of Foothill Blvd.

The victim was lying 15 ft. south of the right rear wheel of the auto, according to police measurements. He was rushed to San Antonio Community Hospital shortly after the accident at 1:23 p.m. Police were notified that the boy was dead at 3:10 p.m.

Mrs. Rose Birnbaum, 80, died Aug. 29 after another pedestrian accident at 7:05 p.m. Aug. 15. The victim lived at 371 N. Central Ave. The accident occurred on Central Ave. Mrs. Birnbaum, from Austria, was awaiting her naturalization hearing which would have occurred Sept. 16. No citation was issued driver of the car involved.

During the summer Upland has been plagued by a series of seven accidents involving young boys on bicycles. In each case, it was ruled by investigating officers that the cyclist was at fault and the children have been cited.

Requiem mass for Peter John Andreozzi was celebrated this morning in St. Joseph's Catholic Church, Upland, the Rev. Fr. Michael J. Browne officiating. Rosary was recited Tuesday night in Stone's Funeral Home. Entombment followed services in Bellevue Mausoleum.

Survivors include the parents, maternal grandfather Vito John Gallo, Upland, paternal grandmother, Mrs. Peter Andreozzi, W. Va., sister Miss Gloria G. Andreozzi, Cucamonga, uncles Domonic Gallo, Upland, Victor Gallo, Anaheim, and several uncles and aunts in the east.

The boy was born in Steubenville, Ohio. He had lived in Cucamonga for four years and was a student at Cucamonga School.

Girls State Report Set At Upland High

When Miss Claudia Owen returns to Upland High for her senior year Monday, Sept. 14, she will have a duty to perform.

She must give a talk during assembly on the things she learned while representing Upland at Girls State in Davis June 19-27 this summer.

The main things she learned? That 420 girls can work together, even though they start out as strangers.

"I went there not knowing anyone," Claudia reported. "When I left, I had 419 new friends!"

Upland Native

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Owen of 755 N. Euclid Ave., Claudia is a native of Upland. The main friend she made at Girls State was, of course, her roommate. Her name was Pat Mize. She came from Cambria High School.

Claudia was elected deputy county clerk on the Tory platform while at Girls State. She also worked on the Girls State paper, The After Dinner Post, published each day on Girls State affairs.

"It was all so impressive!" Claudia exclaimed, thinking about the overall picture at Girls State. "It is something you have to experience to understand!"

Fulfills Requirements

Claudia was chosen by the American Legion Auxiliary for the Girls State honor on the basis of scholarship, citizenship and leadership. She was president of Tri Hi Y last year as a junior. This year she will be working with the senior class.

Claudia has put in a busy summer. She served as counselor at Pacific Palisades Choir Camp and helped escort a Y group of youngsters to the San Diego Zoo for an outing. Until school starts, she is caring for a small boy in Cucamonga.

Her hobby is music. She plays the piano.

The future? "I would like to attend Santa Barbara with a major in education," says the level - headed, lovely young lady.

15 Citizens Asked To Serve Schools

Fifteen Upland citizens were to be contacted this week by Supt. Harold Cook requesting their services on a Lay Advisory Committee "to recommend school buildings needs and methods of finance" in Upland School District.

Names were decided upon and an "urgent' letter approved by the district board of trustees in regular meeting Tuesday night, Sept. 8.

An adjourned meeting of the board was set for Tuesday, Sept. 29, at which time the Advisory Committee will meet with the trustees in Upland Junior High School art room to discuss the classroom problem of the district.

Expected to result from the study by the Advisory Committee is an election covering sale of $1 million in district bonds and state aid of $1,190,000.

Hope was expressed that in view of district need in the face of double sessions the Advisory Committee would speed its study to set up a bond election for January.

Even though Contractor Emory C. Jackson offered to reduce his low bid of $75,991 to $68,491 due to an error in milling cost by the subcontractor, the trustees rejected the bid on construction of two administration buildings by a 2-1 vote. Trustees Mrs. Raymond Kay and Floyd Allen voted to reject the bid, Dr. Wendell Harmon voted against rejection. President Jarvis Leman did not vote.

Reasons expressed for rejecting the bid were that it did not include a necessary covered passageway and that, in view of the need for passage of bonds to construct needed classrooms, it did not seem wise to spend so much money for administration structures.

Masons Note Constitution

Anniversary of adoption of the United States Constitution will be observed by Upland's Masonic Lodge Sept. 24 at 8 p.m., it has been announced by Worshipful Master H. L. Smith.

There will be two short patriotic talks, refreshments and entertainment to which the public is invited, Mr. Smith said.

Wiley Mather will speak on the Constitution and Michael J. Hanna will talk on the Flag of the United States.

The Masonic Lodge is located at 256 N. Second Ave., Upland.

More Baton Honors For Upland Girl

Rhonda Ferndino, 8, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ferndino of 705 Tulare Way, Upland, added to her trophy collection over the Labor Day weekend.

A baton twirling champion, young Miss Ferndino entered four competitions of her specialty and returned home with four awards.

Rhonda took third place, apprentice division, at Fullerton Saturday; first in intermediate and third place in apprentice at Eagle Rock Sunday; and first in apprentice at Long Beach Monday. All competitions were sponsored by the National Baton Assn.

Miss Ferndino, sponsored by Dale Staples, father of Rhonda's teacher, Karen Staples, will enter Los Angeles Fair competition Sept. 19, taking on girls from as far away as Washington.

Alvin L. Short, jury and court coordinator of San Bernardino Superior Court, will be at City Hall council chambers between 1 and 6 p.m. each day. He will interview those scheduled to serve as trial jurors during one of the four 1960 impanelments.

Persons who have been summoned for interviews need not appear unless they have legal cause or objections to offer against serving as a trial juror.

One thousand jurors will be impaneled every three months during the year. The average juror will serve from five to seven days during his impanelment.

Jurors are paid $5 plus 15 cents per mile one way from their residence to the Court house for each day they appear.

Frosh Day Saturday At High School

Upland High School freshmen are scheduled to report to the campus at 8:30 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 12 for orientation, it has been announced by Principal Thomas M. Glasheen. There will be no bus service.

The incoming ninth graders will register between 8:30 and 9:15 a.m. Saturday. Honored were L. L. Foster of the Cucamonga Times, Beilby Mason of the San Bernardino Sun, Harriett Olmos of Triad newspapers of Fontana and Mel Hodell of The Upland News. Each made a short talk.

Also present were Lions officials, District Gov. Homer Clark and Al Mendel, district chairman of public relations.

The program was planned by Hollis Guthrie. Introductions were made by President John Patane.

Pre-School Teacher Program Ends In County This Friday

Pre-school meetings which started for West End county administrators and teachers Sept. 1 continues through Thursday and Friday, Sept. 10 and 11, at Central and Cucamonga schools in Cucamonga.

Combined sessions got underway Thursday, Sept. 3 at Valle Vista School with Principal Mrs. Dorothy Hickcox as host.

There the teachers and administrators heard Carol Poppett, coordinator of art education, speak on "A Challenging Environment for Learning," and instructors of grades 7 and 8 heard Dr. Emily Baker, coordinator of arithmetic, discuss the new county guide, "Arithmetic for Today's Children and Youth." The new Valle Vista class rooms were inspected.

Teacher Breakfast

Wednesday, Sept. 9, the Teacher's Club Breakfast was held in Stuft Shirt Restaurant. Dr. Glen Goodwill, superintendent of Santa Monica City Unified Schools, spoke on "The Big Red Schoolhouse." Grade level meetings were to be held in Valle Vista classrooms during the afternoon.

Thursday, Sept. 10, teachers of kindergartens and grades 1 and 2 are scheduled to meet in Central School kindergarten building to hear Alice Krehbiel, coordinator of reading, discuss "Language Arts in Kindergarten and Grades 1 and 2" at 9 a.m.

Meeting at Upland Elementary School Auditorium at 9 a.m. Thursday will be teachers of grades 3 through 8. They will hear Dr. Thorsten Carlson, professor of education at San Diego State College, on "Introduction to New State Spelling Texts."

County Orientation

At 1:30 p.m. Thursday all teachers will meet in Etiwanda School Auditorium for orientation to county services. Chairman will be Supt. Sidney Moses of Etiwanda School. Speakers will include County Supt. Roy Hill.

Friday, Sept. 11, final meeting will be held at Cucamonga School and Upland Elementary School Auditorium. Seventh and eighth grade tutors will hear Dr. Donald McNassor, professor of education, Claremont Graduate School, speak on "Guidance" in Upland at 10 a.m. All other teachers will hear Penrod Moss, sixth grade supervising teacher at UCLA Demonstration School, speak on "Problem Solving in the Social Studies" at Cucamonga.

Traffic Control For Cucamonga

A traffic control signal at intersection of Hellman Ave. and Foothill Blvd. is sought by Cucamonga District Chamber of Commerce.

CHERRYVALE, KANSAS, THE REPUBLICAN: "After seven years of opposition to laws for protection of union members' rights within their unions, the American Civil Liberties Union has reversed its stand.

"The ACLU had contended that 'self-policing' of the unions was the answer. It took a lot of evidence to change the ACLU's mind, but that evidence has been piling up.

"When a man's right to hold a job is dependent upon his membership in a union as the result of Federal policy, the government owes it to him to see that he's not forced to serve union dictators."

Also sought is added warning for motorists against the dip at Beryl and Banyan on Banyan.

Chamber director Ted Vath declared these spots as "where all Cucamonga's accidents occur.'

Mr. Vath said there was a "Dip' sign at the Beryl-Banyan intersection but that motorists should be warned "it is a dangerous dip and to slow to five miles per hour."

Chamber secretary Hollis Guthrie was instructed to write the county road commissioner requesting action.

The problem of school children crossing Foothill Blvd. in Cucamonga was also discussed. It was Mr. Vath's suggestion that if traffic control signals were installed at both Hellman and Turner Aves. on Foothill, that would slow traffic down on both sides of the downtown section.

Lighting District Now Beating Time

Drive for 34 street lights in downtown Cucamonga, two housing tracts and along main streets by Cucamonga District Chamber of Commerce will beat time for two weeks.

Don Rawlinson of Southern California Edison Co. is making a detailed map of the proposed annexation to Cucamonga Lighting District. He notified the chamber board the map would be ready in "about two weeks." Petitions regarding the district will be started circulating when the map is received.

Of the 34 street lights planned, eight will be in South west Homes subdivision, six in Sycamore Gardens subdivision and four in the downtown area of Cucamonga. The rest are along main arteries like Foothill Blvd., Archibald Ave. and Ninth St. Ninth St. is being planned as the main industrial truck route alongside the railroad.

Ten of the lights will be 20,000 lumen mercury vapor. The rest will be 4000 lumen incandescent. All will be in tersectional overhanging types with wooden poles.

Required on petitions for the annexation will be signatures of 25 per cent of the property owners of 25 per cent of the approximate $1 million assessed valuation of the district proposed for annexation.

Estimations show cost to the taxpayer will be between 11 and 13 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

Deadline to get in on next year's tax roll is Feb. 1.

Get 'Em While Hot

Maps of Cucamonga are going like hot cakes.

Secretary Hollis Guthrie of Cucamonga District Chamber of Commerce has pronounced the maps a "best seller."

He has sold 1120 at $12. Of the 32 persons who came to the office for maps, majority have purchased more than one at 10 cents apiece.

Looks Like Scoop Got Scooped Here

Cucamonga District Chamber of Commerce is operating in the black.

Secretary Hollis Guthrie informed the board of directors this month that $82.41 is in the bank, the rent and utilities on the chamber office on San Bernardino Rd. at Hellman Ave. are paid, along with all bills but one. That one, for $62.50, is owed Cucamonga civic leader Leslie (Scoop) Foster.

Let's

"Let's Get Tough With Labor — Before It's Too Late" was the subject of talk which captured Speaker of the Week award for Bill Dryden of San Bernardino Club at Upland Foothill Toastmasters Club Wednesday, Sept. 2. It was a combined meeting with the San Bernardino group.

Other speakers from the local club were Andy Barmakian and Douglas Adams.

Election Pends

A nominating committee of three persons will be appointed this month by Cucamonga District Chamber of Commerce President Charles Smith. Nominations for the chamber board will be made in October. Election will be held in November. The new directors will take office in December.

Without Penalizing Our Businessmen, Trees Can Still Beautify All Upland

There are several studies underway to formulate a city policy regarding trees in Upland.

Should the trees be taken out of the business district? Should more be planted?

We have listened to discussions covering both sides of the question.

Actually we feel it is not a black and white situation. We think specific decisions always will have to be made regarding trees.

We agree with the general opinion recently voiced by the Chamber president to the effect that cities are indeed blessed if they have many trees.

Upland's many tree-lined streets are a most definite asset. They provide beauty and shade that cannot be produced in any other manner than by having a tree.

We would welcome more trees in the downtown area, plus a concerted effort to have flower boxes and other greenery throughout the shopping area.

We believe proper planting, the right kind of trees, the proper pruning, all are important.

Certainly no businessman should be penalized by having tree conditions forced down his throat when there is a compromise or better solution.

On the other hand, planners, architects, residents, and merchants alike should have an interest in beautifying all of Upland . . . with trees.

School Days Or Not, Be A Careful Driver Always

It is customary to urge drivers to be careful about children going to and from school.

Certainly the youngest, the little tykes, need special attention. For they are entering a new world and the prospect of street crossing looms as a major step in learning to take care of themselves.

Frankly, we're usually a little relieved when the kids are in school. During vacation a driver finds youngsters everywhere all the time. At least the odds may be lowered during school hours.

But beware . . . pent up energy on the loose can be a real terror to a driver outside school. And there always will be the pre-school tyke, as well as the child who didn't happen to go to school that one day.

Best solution: Be a careful driver all the time.

PS: This is the editorial we wrote . . . a week late.

One of Upland's youngsters has been killed on Foothill.

Children and autos don't mix.

We anticipate many conversations in the homes now about the need for traffic safety.

Wise Counseling Assists College Frosh Orientation

The average freshman arrives at college in the middle stage of his emotional and psychological development and is unprepared to adjust overnight to being on his own, in a new social environment, without the security of his parents, friends and the familiar milieu where he knows where he stands. Wise counseling from faculty members can help him become oriented and make the personal decisions which will enable him to develop self-autonomy, said Dr. John R. Weir, associate professor of psychology at California Institute of Technology, speaking to Harvey Mudd College professors.

In discussing the psychological problems of students, Prof. Weir noted that on an average, 10 per cent of any student body will have severe problems of adjustment, and 30 per cent will have mild maladjustments, all of which will require professional therapy.

The CalTech psychologist stressed the need for "developmental counseling and psychotherapy" for the healthy and mature personality, pointing out that the insights found in the study of disturbed personalities can be used for the further development of the normal person.

This can be accomplished by means of human relations courses and workshops. The educational value lies in the college can give students in fact that the more aid the gratification of their individual psychological needs through helping them to understand themselves and others, the more effective will be the intake of knowledge and learning.

OASIS DATE LINE for start of the $90,000 building fund drive was Sept. 1. Presenting the Oasis story to service clubs in the area are Beth Penn, board member, and J. D. Heath, board chairman of the Chaffey District teenage organization, both of Upland. Organizations interested in seeing the slide production relating the Oasis story and the need for the teenage building are asked to contact Oasis headquarters for a September date.

Here's Story On Oasis Club

"Our teenagers deserve our support," declares Jack Brewer, chairman of the Oasis 1959 building fund drive which was launched last week by the Chaffey District youth organization, 700 prepsters strong.

Mr. Brewer, sided by J.D. Heath, chairman of the Oasis teenage board of directors, told the Oasis story to Upland Kiwanis Club aided by Pamela, the mythical Oasis camel mascot.

Deserving Teenagers

The local teenagers formed Oasis two years ago, according to Mr. Brewer of Upland. "If you had the opportunity as I have had to watch them during the past two years," Mr. Brewer declared, "you would know they deserve our support.'

Goal of the Oasis fund drive, the Kiwanians were told, is $90,000. The building fund account as of May 31 was $10,175.37 collected by the organization in 1957. That amount is on deposit and drawing interest.

Building Plan

Plan is to construct a 10,000 sq. ft. building. Land for the structure has been leased from the City of Ontario at $1 per year for 25 years, the lease to be renewed at the end of that time. The property is on W. Fifth St., Ontario, between Mountain and Benson Aves.

Since the club is for teenagers attending the three Chaffey high schools — at Montclair, Ontario and Upland — and private and parochial schools in the district, the location is centralized.

Cost of operating and maintaining the building will be responsibility of the members through yearly membership dues, rummage sales, card parties and such.

Organization Purpose

Purpose of Oasis is to give the teenagers a recreation facility to meet teenage interests.

An adult advisory board meets constantly with the Oasis teenage board to advise, guide and facilitate operation of the club.

The club has a paid director and two paid assistant directors.

Mr. Brewer told Kiwanians of a recent visit to Taft where taxpayers support such a youth group at a cost of $50,000 per year. "Adults there were amazed at the self-sustaining set-up of our organization," the campaign director said.

Camel Commentator

With narration by Pamela, a series of slides with sound introduced Kiwanians to backers of Oasis, adult and teenage. Among the adult backers were Felix Quesada, juvenile office of Upland Police Department; Mayor Abner Haldeman of Upland along with the mayors of Montclair and Ontario; Arnold Anderson, member of Chaffey Union High School board of trustees; and banker Ralph Arnold who declared Oasis was an "asset to the West End."

Concluded Mr. Brewer, "There is no better investment than an investment in our youth."

Chaffey Schools Officers

A new training program for police officers will be offered at Chaffey College with classes to be given both day and evening.

Dr. Clarence C. Calhoun, associate dean of instruction in charge of the evening college, said the new program has three principal aims.

These are designed to provide pre-employment training for undergraduates who plan to enter the field of law enforcement; give in-service training to employed officers and to offer full programs leading to the Associate in Arts degree at Chaffey, followed by two more years of study at a four-year college.

Residents in the area served by Chaffey College previously had to attend Mt. San Antonio, San Bernardino or Riverside colleges to get these courses of instruction, Dr. Calhoun said.

At outset, the program will offer courses in basic law enforcement, criminal law and procedures, juvenile court law, criminal evidence and arrest, and search and seizure, the educator said.

Instructors for the courses to be taught during the first semester will be Everett Holladay, assistant chief of police, Pomona; Sgt. D. D. Parnell, Los Angeles County Sheriff's Academy and Capt. J.W. Greer, Corona Police Department.

The program was instigated on advice of the college's Police Officers Advisory Committee. This body is comprised of representativs of th Upland, Ontario, Chino, Claremont, Montclair and Fontana Police Departments, Chino Prison, San Bernardino County Sheriff's Office and the County Probation Department.

Dr. Calhoun said specialists in the field with special training in various phases of law enforcement will be used to teach the classes.

Classes will be instructed on a shift basis, the college official said, explaining that the same class will be taught as a day class and as a night class during the semester.

This will permit working police officers who would like to enroll to do so whether they work a day shift or a night shift.

A courteous act, says the Automobile Club of Southern California, can make a friend. On the highway, a courteous act can save a life.

Small College Must Balance Science With Liberal Arts

Future of the small college rests on a strong emphasis on science with a balanced program in the liberal arts, according to Dr. A.L. Vaughn, professor physics, University of Minnesota. This statement was made to 200 representatives of the Council for the Advancement of Small Colleges meeting at The King's College, Briarcliff Manor recently, including those from Upland College.

Dr. Vaughn said when science is related to the liberal arts the creative abilities of the student are developed, which may not be accomplished through technical education. The student learns how to think, has the information from which to think, learn to communicate his thinking and relates his thinking to moral values.

The University of Minnesota professor pointed out that technical education alone is inadequate for this age. "Technical skills learned today may not be useful tomorrow." He pointed to engineering as one of the technical fields in which the trend is towards a strong foundation in the liberal arts as a prerequisite for professional training.

In the same meeting Dr. W. J. McKeechie, professor of psychology, University of Michigan, said, "In the past the bulk of our scientists received their basic undergraduate education in the small liberal arts college. The small college can continue to be a potential source of our research scientists and teachers of science."

The problem of providing a qualified faculty was pointed up as the most serious challenge to the small college leadership in science.

Dr. McKeechie said, "Present national statistics indicate that Ph.D's represent 40 per cent of the total college faculties. Within the next 20 years this national percentage will drop to 20 per cent. A doctor of philosophy will be at a premium. The small colleges, with their limited financial resources will be hard pressed to meet the salary demands in a teacher's selling-market."

Dr. Vaughn stressed that the faculty shortages in the small college would be solved by their developing the faculties and the internal resources which they now have.

DR. SEYMOUR M. LIPSET, U. C. sociologist — "Conformity is keeping most Americans in a state of perpetual caution, which in turn makes them lose their individual identity."

ADVANTAGES OF GIVING UNITED FUND WAY TOLD

Advantages of "giving" to the West End United Fund, composed of 28 different organizations, were outlined to Upland Rotarians Wednesday by Dean Hartung, newly hired professional fundraiser.

He cited the saving of time, the business like approach, saving in administrative costs, and having the public help control budgets of member groups.

Big Business

Mr. Hartung said charity was "big business," totaling some $7 billion being collected by 600 agencies.

Last year's fund drive was "60 per cent successful" but still raised $137,000 for the agencies, "which is more than they ever have had before," he said.

This year the agencies requested $235,151, which has been scaled down to $199,000 through budget control, he said.

Instead of an increase of 6 per cent this year, Mr. Hartung explained that an increase in Red Cross allowance for funds through the United Fund, instead of having funds left over from a previous individual Red Cross drive, actually increased the budget only 37 per cent.

Open Door Policy

"We have an open door policy toward other agencies who want to come in with the United Fund," the speaker said, in the nine communities being served: Ontario, Chino, Upland, Montclair, Cucamonga, Guasti, Etiwanda, Alta Loma, Mt. Baldy.

"We serve the entire West End with like services," he said. There is a proposal for creation of a West End Dental Clinic.

Selling Problem

The problem of selling the United Fund is not only of a "package" but also of selling individual agencies through out the year.

Mr. Hartung said administrative costs this year would amount to 10 or 12 per cent to collect the money, where as some agencies are in the 30 to 40 per cent bracket, and a few as high as 80 per cent.

Hear Bells?

Upland's Chamber of Commerce office handles just about every type of call during the month.

Last month a complaint was received that ice cream trucks were awakening children during their afternoon naps.

"Can something be done about them?" the caller inquired.

Willy Schaeffler, director of ski events for the VIII Olympic Winter Games at Squaw Valley Feb. 18 - 28, 1960, is on leave-of-absence from his ski coaching post at Denver University. His Denver teams won six NCAA titles in Schaeffler's eight years as coach.

LIBRARY NOTES

THE BIG JUMP by Benjamin Elkin and LITTLE BEAR by Else Minarik can be read by second graders. These are two examples of good books which are being written for the lowest grades. They have simple vocabularies but they tell good stories.

A little note in the front of FISHING FOR TUNA by Lewis Allison tells us that the Fisherman's Union of Long Beach, J. E. McClintock of Pierpoint Landing in Long Beach, and a sea food company have checked the manuscript for accuracy. We can depend on books like this for information.

Youngest Teacher

A 20-year old recent graduate of Chaffey College will be youngest member of the college faculty.

Miss Estella Hammond, who also graduated from Chaffey High School, will teach vocational nursing at Chaffey College.

She has already received her vocational nursing license and is due to obtain her registered nursing licensing this fall.

Active in student affairs during her stay at Chaffey College, Miss Hammond was vocational nurses candidate for campus queen. She was a member of Alpha Gamma Sigma and the Caduceus Club. Her hobbies are music and sports.

Prof. Margaret Slotkin, coordinator of the nursing curriculum, said addition of Miss Hammond to the faculty will be an asset to the area of nurse training at Chaffey College.

College Book Store Open

Books and lockers are now on sale at Chaffey College, according to Mrs. Grace Layton, assistant manager.

"Most of the books are now in and we are able to offer more personal attention before the rush begins at the opening of school," Mrs. Layton said.

She said hours for the bookstore between now and opening of school will be from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. After school starts the hours will be from 7:45 a.m. to 4:15 p.m. and from 6 to 9 p.m. Mondays through Thursdays.

Attendance At Chaffey Increasing

Registration at Chaffey College is running about 10 per cent ahead of last year at this time, according to Rex W. Wignall, director.

He reported 1240 full time students, 143 part time and 113 statutory adult students had enrolled.

Registration for day classes ended Tuesday, Sept. 8, at 5 p.m. Classes for day students will begin Sept. 14. Placement tests were given Thursday (Sept. 3) at 8:30 a.m. and 6:30 p.m.

Ways And Means Talking Points

Suggestion by Don Gannon that a non-profit corporation could be formed in regard to purchase of land for Upland's civic center will be further explored by the City Capital Improvement Committee on Ways and Means.

When a question arose about condemnation of land for future use by the city during Wednesday night, Aug. 26 meeting of the committee, George TeVelde suggested it might be wise to obtain the city attorney's advice on that.

Over The Hump

City Manager Elwin Alder said he would telephone City Atty. Henry Busch right then "to get us over the hump a little bit."

The city attorney informed the comittee the city could condemn property for needs and necessities, then or in the future, in present civic center area or elsewhere.

James Stamm expressed the thought in case of condemnation of land between Second and Euclid Aves. and D St. and Arrow Hwy. existing homes and buildings already on the land could be offered as rentals by the city or converted to city office use.

During th evening's discussion, Mr. Stamm kept pressing for the Ways and Means Committee to make a recommendation to City Council.

"Are we ready to make a recommendation to City Council?" he asked at one point.

Don Gannon said he thought Allan Barr who was absent should be in on the recomendation. Chairman Carr said he would like to see the full 11-man committee present before a recommendation was decided upon. Besides Mr. Barr, committee members Harvey Shirk and Dwight Bert were also absent.

Another time Mr. Stam suggested possibility of recommending that City Council put the idea of the non-profit corporation to the voters for decision.

Need Technical Help

Mr. Alder said the committee would probably have to look to consulting firms for technical advice on financing. Mr. TeVelde feit the committee needed financing plans developed further.

"I suggest the best way to proceed is to decide what we want gefore getting financing details," said Chairman Carr.

City Manager Alder agreed it would be best to know amount of any proposed bond issue so experts could have a firm figure from which to work out financing.

Other Points

Other points made during the discussion by committee members:

Don Adams — Build a building for the civic center on Euclid Ave. We should start developing our front door. This new filling station on the corner of Euclid Ave. and Arrow Hwy. might start others buying land in its vicinity.

Noted City Manager Elwin Alder: "I think that's a good suggestion. Once we establish the civic center area, I believe the land will remain available for the city."

Ray Sherwood — Perhaps we are creating a false value for the land in vicinity of City Hall for the civic center. I can't visualize this property being developed commercially, outside of the Euclid Ave. frontage.

Don Gannon — We can't be timid about acquiring a site for the civic center.

Automation Era Leads To New Chaffey College Class

The approaching era of automation has led to development of a new two-year course of study to be offered for the first time at Chaffey College, according to Olof E. Snyder, dean of instruction.

"The course in business data processing is based on needs defined by business, industry and defense establishments determined by a survey conducted by Prof. Louis J. Gentile, chairman of business education at Chaffey College," Dean Snyder stated.

The area studied by Mr. Gentile included the west end of San Bernardino County, northwest portion of Riverside County and Pomona Valley.

"Following enactment of the National Defense Education Act of 1958," Mr. Gentile said, "the field of business education was explored to determine whether technical jobs existed for which junior college programs should be developed."

Prof. Gentile said it was consensus of those attending the meetings that business data processing contained certain jobs technical in nature requiring need for instruction in mathematics, science and English.

Meetings were also held with faculty members of Mount Diablo Valley College, which made a similar study in its area, thus further providing a valuable exchange of ideas that led to development of the present curriculum.

Prof. Gentile said the two-year study would lead to the Associate in Arts degree. He said objectives of the course will be to equip the graduate with resources of information, in addition to skills, machine knowledge and specific data processing information.
